Let's Color America!

Studio Moonfall, Wisconsin's all-ages book publisher of illustrated adventures and more, is going on a road trip! We're starting a new coloring book series featuring places across the country and want your business to be part of it.

Creating coloring pages for neighboring businesses in Kenosha, Wisconsin began as a way to give people something fun to do while laying low during the whole pandemic situation. Daily printable pages grew into The Color of Kenosha coloring book series which has done so well in helping people, businesses, and fundraisers that it's time to bring the party to the whole country.

Sign up your business for this absolutely creative way to advertise and here's what you'll get:

- Custom illustration designed by Wisconsin author/illustrator Donovan Scherer of Studio Moonfall
- A printable file and web link for your coloring page that you can share
- License to use the final artwork for your own promotions, social media, or merchandise
- Social media graphics to promote the coloring book and your page in it
- Give your books to you favorite customers or sell them to recoup your costs and make a profit! (MSRP $10)
